

NedFest 2017 Program Advertising Information

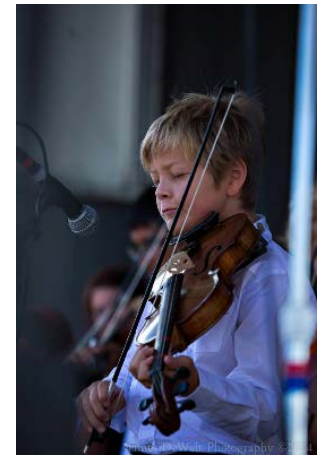

Show your support for NedFest and its efforts to promote music education opportunities for local kids!

Don't miss being included in this year's program for the Nederland Music and Arts Festival! The program will be distributed during July and August throughout the region in advance of the festival for promotion and during the festival weekend to our attendees. In addition to the music schedule and general information for our festivarians it will also include features such as band photos and biographies, NedFest history and photos, and Peak to Peak Music Education Association news.
